[Calculated by Graduate Advisor]

The Mid-Program Review must be passed with an average score of at least 6.0 on a scale of 10.

FAILING: If a student fails the Mid-Program Review, the Graduate Advisor appoints an ad-hoc subcommittee within 48 hours to determine, with the student's committee, whether the student remounts the Review during the first week of the third semester or is asked to leave the program. Students already on departmental probation from the 1st Review must pass the Mid-Program Review or be automatically terminated.
